Nora Carrol

Six Recent Paintings with Sand

Opening Reception
Friday February 9, 6 -8:30PM

Nora Carrol is returning to her long-time home of metro Washington, D.C. to show six abstracted works incorporating the use of fine aquarium sand. The artist comments “my images are derivative, emanating from existing forms, whether organic, architectural or geologic. They can be inspired by observation, imagination or events. These pieces are selected from two groups of work: ‘All That’, representing the dynamism of music, and ‘The Garden”, humorous abstractions of the female reproductive system”.

Carrol is represented by the Agora Gallery in New York City www.agora-gallery.com, Caladan Gallery north of Boston, MA www.caladangallery.com, and private art dealer Adrienne Adler in Rancho Mirage, CA . Her own website is at <http://www.carrolart.com>. She has exhibited nationally through juried and invitational events, and lives in Phoenix, AZ. Carrol studied at the Art Students League in New York and received both her M.S. in Adult Education/Innovation Management and a B.F.A. in Painting at Syracuse University. Professional activities include membership in the Sedona Arts Center (AZ) and the business advisory council of Colorado Technical University. The artist is listed in 'Who's Who in America 2002-2004' as well as 'Who's Who in American Women 2003-2004'.
