Christiane Middendorf

Opening Reception: Friday, June 8, 2007
6-8:30pm

Christiane Middendorf's works are known for actively addressing the viewer and almost putting them under a spell. People are drawn to her very colorful and expressive art work. Her paintings are influenced by calculation, will power and the great unknown coincident. Yet her paintings are abstract and depict separation, multiple crossings which, at the end, all come together and thus forming one nucleus. Every so often unity shows as one part of the entire universe.

Christiane Middendorf's own dynamic is reflected in all of her works and which can also be followed vividly in single or multiple brush strokes. This applies to the initial process as well as for changes within.

"Art is never the same

Art is always different

Art expresses emotions, experiences, relationships,

dreams, thoughts, pain, desires, lust, coincidences, chances and /or social constraints"
