“Word and Image” Collages Mary Trent Scott

Opening Reception: May 8, 6 - 8:30 p.m.

Does anyone know the “Ten Commandments” today? Grounded in Judeo-Christian tradition, Mary Trent Scott has enlashed the words of the ten commandments in a series of mixed media collage images that speak to current culture. The images may be studied to find a surprise here and there. “You Shall Not Steal” combines an image of a two dollar bill and one of Robin Hood (the hero/thief who robbed the rich to give to the poor) as a comment on “big government.”

biblical events as well as her family and friends. In the last two decades she participated in a number of exhibitions at Touchstone Gallery and elsewhere.
