"Folks Like Us" Paula B. Lantz

"Folks Like Us" a solo show of contemporary abstract artwork expressed in loose gestural figures. Her bold bright colors create a world of emotion using mixed media figure drawings on canvas and paper. Extrapolated everyday figure poses create a pattern of color and shapes deliver visions of inner beauty existing in us all.

Paula's common thread in all her works: "I seek and respond to the spiritual nature in all of us--the landscape of our souls, expressed in bold colors and simple forms."

Lantz competes regularly in local, regional, and national competitions. She has had juried and solo shows at the Government Center Arts Program; the Arts Council of Fairfax County, Black Rock Center of the Arts, Germantown, MD; The Artists' Gallery, Columbia MD; Gallery West, Alexandria, VA; The Art League, Alexandria, VA; The Levine School of Music, Washington DC; Montpelier Center for the Arts, Montpelier, VA; Del Ray Artisans, Alexandria, VA.
